1. BoatHouse

A magnificent panorama, delicious food and a very hospitable atmosphere will ensure that you really will enjoy your visit to the Boat-house. Opt for a great lunch or dinner on the terrace, at the waterside. Or rent a sloop at Boel2 and go for a little cruise!

2. Noorderplassen

This is a fantastic nature reserve featuring lovely small islands like the corsair island, the pirate island, mutiny island or the treasure island. A great place for your picnic or barbecue. There also are special observation huts for bird watching and various small beaches.

3. Pampushout

Spot the beaver of Pampushout! Thanks to the wetland areas inside this urban forest, beavers and herons have found their ideal habitat there.

4. Polderland Garden of Love and Fire

In the midst of the forest Pampushout you'll see a land artwork created by architect Daniel Libeskind. In the Polderland Garden of Love and Fire, the lines symbolise the connections between people across time and space.

5. Lepelaarplassen

The lake area called Lepelaarplassen is a paradise for water and marshbirds. A visit there is definitely worth the effort. From the observation huts you can spot and observe fascinating wildlife, among which a rookery of cormorants and the sedge warbler.

6. De Realiteit

The houses of the residential block De Realiteit were constructed following a design competition "Temporary living". Also here the architects were free to create, without having to adhere to any official building standards or other types of limitation. So here is another residential block which is now meant to stay!
